Location

Wrapped in an ageless charm, the village of Lech am Arlberg stands as a mesmerizing fusion of old-world charm and modern luxury. Its quintessential Austrian architecture, harking back to simpler times, embellishes the scenery, painting a charming and scenic picture. Amidst this stunning backdrop, you'll discover an assortment of high-end hotels and exquisite culinary experiences that amplify your visit.

Tucked away in the very core of the Austrian Alps, Lech boasts an easy connection to a wide-ranging lift system that caters to miles of impeccably maintained slopes, drawing winter sports enthusiasts from across the world. The rich snowfall in winter transforms it into a haven for all those who enjoy winter sports, offering an array of activities from sledding to ice skating.

Come summer, the village of Lech undergoes a stunning transformation. The snow-capped peaks give way to sprawling, lush green meadows, offering an entirely different but equally captivating natural spectacle. Hiking and biking trails crisscross the landscape, providing ample opportunities for exploration and adventure. Furthermore, this charming village bursts into a kaleidoscope of color under the sunny skies, with vibrant wildflowers dotting the landscape.

Hotel Overview

The 4-Star Hotel Alpenland is a premier family-run luxury hotel in the heart of the Alps. Known for exceptional service, comfortable accommodations, and stunning alpine views, Hotel Alpenland offers a unique blend of natural beauty and modern comforts. First opened in 1957, the hotel is committed to providing its guests with an unforgettable stay, complete with high-quality wellness and relaxation offerings. Hotel Alpenland is a favorite among couples and families for both winter and summer seasons.

Accommodations

Hotel Alpenland provides an accommodating array of well-designed lodgings with five different inviting room categories and 17 well-appointed rooms & suites. Most rooms and suites offer the option of a private step-out balcony with beautiful views. Every room and suite features a telephone, Internet access, TV with international channels, radio, and safe deposit. The bathroom has a soaking tub or shower, toilet, thick robes, and hairdryer.

Wellness Center

The recently built 170-square meter spa wellness offerings at Hotel Alpenland are a treat for those seeking relaxation and rejuvenation. The spa sanctuary, with its calming interior designs inspired by nature, houses a Finnish sauna, salt stone sauna, infrared sauna, and a steam room.

Complementing the sauna facilities is an expansive relaxation lounge where guests can unwind after their sauna session. The lounge offers a selection of rejuvenating massages tailored to meet individual needs and preferences.

Cuisine

The freshest ingredients, exquisite wines, and impeccable service transport hotel guests on a culinary odyssey as breathtaking as the hotel restaurant's mountain views.
